Thank you. If you find yourself working on this at 11 pm on Friday, you should probably decide that it can wait until Monday. Even I would not stay that late.

That reminds me, did the missing settlement turn up? Maybe that is part of what you have for me.

Robby,

In early July we spoke about EPA's request for additional financial information from Cornell-Dubilier Electronics, Inc., dated June 4, 2009, and how EPA would maintain the confidentiality of the information. A short time later I sent you a letter, dated July 9, 2009 addressing this point. Having not received the financial information, I wanted to make sure my letter had reached you. If you have an idea when CDE may be submitting the additional information, I would be interested to know that.

Thanks,

Sarah
